The Retreats

8-12 March

“Come Away and Rest Awhile”

Batehaven
NSW

(Mark 6:31)

$400

During this three-day silent, guided retreat there will be the opportunity to pause and reflect as we invite God to renew and refresh us as we continue to live with the reality of Covid19.

Maureen McDermott rsj

11-18 April

Inscape

Baulkham Hills
NSW

Our Geography is our biology and vice versa. Together they help shape our spirit.

$700

On this retreat we will explore our inscape, the shape our life journey has taken to bring us to this place, this time, this now. Our life journey has many dimensions, conscious and unconscious. The “Now” is the time to step into our experience more deeply. How has our God accompanied us on this journey? Where and how is our God leading us into the future God dreams for us?

Colleen O’Sullivan rsj

16-23 April

Would you like to experience some time in/with “The Shack”?

Kincumber
South
NSW

This retreat uses imagery as a tool/window through which we capture essential understandings of God.

$700

The Shack is a 2017 American Christian drama based on the 2007 novel of the same name by William P. Young. Despite having attracted much comment, questioning and criticism, Young himself says that we all need to go “to that place of greatest loss” to experience healing, forgiveness, and growth. Viewed with an open mind and heart, this movie can lead us to develop our own faith story and challenge each of us to recognise where God is active and inviting us.

“For me to live as Christ”

On the road to Damascus something happened to Paul, and this changed everything. In a rural setting in late Autumn, this 6 day silent retreat will reflect on the experience of Paul and the Christ he lived and invited others to share. This retreat draws on insights of the late Fr. Kevin O’Shea cssr and the Pauline scholarship of the late Fr. Jerome Murphy O’Connor op.

A glimpse into the spirituality of Fr. Julian Tenison Woods”

What was Julian Edmund Tenison Woods really like? What better opportunity to peek into Julian’s spirituality than by walking contemplatively with his writings and works to draw inspiration for our own living. This retreat will give us a glimpse into his ministry with our early Josephites.

Ann Morrison rsj

9 -18 May

Come and See

Kincumber
South
NSW

$700

This retreat invites you, using the metaphor of the open door, to enter your inner space more deeply. To acknowledge both your vulnerable self and your own inner strength to constantly grow in love. We will use the work of writers such as Joyce Rupp and Brenee Brown. Thus, through stillness and silence we will open ourselves further to the contemplative dimension of life and love.

Colleen O’Sullivan rsj

30 May-6 June

Walking as the beloved

Kincumber
South
NSW

$700

Central to the Gospel of John is the concept of “belovedness” During these days we will walk in companionship with the “beloved Jesus”.

Baulkham Hills
NSW

$700

During this retreat we will pray contemplatively with some of the Pauline texts which use the phrase “in Christ”. This phrase refers not just to humanity but to all of creation. We will also use the works of writers such as Richard Rohr and Ilia Delio to help us understand the invitation to deepen the love of our God, ourselves and Earth embedded in the phrase.

Colleen O’Sullivan rsj

4 July-11 July “Women of Wisdom, Fire and Love: A Journey into Wholeness”

Baulkham Hills
NSW

$700

This retreat provides an opportunity to reflect on and celebrate through input, prayer and ritual, the integration of the psycho-spiritual aspects of being fully human and fully woman as we journey into wholeness in religious life.

Geraldine Kearney sgs

5 July-16 July Acculturation Winter Program

Baulkham Hills
NSW

$1,320

This program is designed for priests, and women and men religious who come to Australia for ministry. Topics include an introduction to Australia – the land, its peoples and the Church, right relationships – women and the Australian Church, integrity in ministry and child protection, and psychological aspects of entering a different culture.

“Living in a Christ-Soaked World”

Is the incarnation a one-time and one-person Jesus of Nazareth event, or is it a cosmic event that has soaked all of history in the Divine Presence from the very beginning? This retreat explores the possibility of opening the ancient door of faith to the proper understanding of the word of Christ. Over these days we will explore our own drops of experience to discover a Christ-soaked world. This retreat is based on Richard Rohr’s book: “The Universal Christ.”

I will love them and reveal myself to them. John 14:21

In the Gospel of John, the words of Jesus reveal his identity, his origin and his relationship with the Father. This retreat offers an opportunity to listen to the “I AM” statements of Jesus and to ponder the mystery and invitation they hold for us.
