ROME

Discover Mary's experiences in Rome and her pilgrimage to France.

Mary MacKillop arrived in Rome on Sunday, 11th May 1873. Several documents for the Roman authorities were prepared to substantiate the purposes of the Congregation in Australia. One such document was a printed pamphlet emphasizing the rule on poverty and the importance of central government.

Mary MacKillop was awaiting approval from the Vatican in Rome for the establishment of the Institute. Long before Federation Mary wrote in this pamphlet, "It is an Australian who writes this". Her friend and supporter, Lady Georgiana Fullerton had the pamphlet printed in its present form.
