

GALLERY 3-ACTIVITY SHEET-THE LIFE OF SR CAMPBELL

IRISH SISTERS FOR AUSTRALIA

The young Irish women, who dedicated their lives to the Sisters of St Joseph at this time, are an inspiration. The women on leaving Ireland faced permanent separation from family and rural isolation in outback communities in a country radically foreign to Irish sensibilities. These women were not alone in a period in Australia history that would embrace thousands of new emigrants from Ireland settling in Australia.

MEET SR PATRICIA CAMPBELL [MARGARET DERVAN]

Sr Patricia Campbell entered the Order in Ireland at the age of twenty-one ! and embarked on the 'SS Osyth', on October 31,1874. She was the last member to join the women bound for Australia.

QUICK QUIZ

How many woman came out to Australia in 1874.

After arriving in Australia, where did Sr Patricia work and what was her role ?