

MARY MACKILLOP PLACE

You're in the perfect place to enjoy Sydney's Jacaranda Season

More this way too we recommend you wander Waverton

Visit our Jacaranda next to the Chapel on Mount Street

More up this way too at Montpelier St. Neutral Bay

Lavender Bay & Wendy Whitely Gardens (10 min walk)

Famous McDougall Street, Kirribilli (15-20 min walk)

Fun Fact: The oldest jacaranda in Australia is believed to be in the Royal Botanic Garden, Sydney, planted around 1850.

Blues Point Reserve
(Beautiful spot to view Sydney Harbour)

Best Blooms - Typically late October to late November

Jump on the Ferry There's more at Circular Quay and The Royal Botanic Gardens

Book Now For 2026

More this way too
we recommend you
wander Waverton

Visit our Jacaranda
next to the Chapel
on Mount Street

More up this way too at Montpelier St,
Neutral Bay

Ball's Head
Reserve

Sawmillers
Reserve

Lavender Bay
& Wendy
Whitely
Gardens
(10 min walk)

Famous McDougall
Street, Kirribilli
(15-20 min walk)

Fun Fact: The oldest jacaranda
in Australia is believed to be in
the Royal Botanic Garden,
Sydney, planted around 1850.

Blues Point Reserve
(Beautiful spot to view
Sydney Harbour)

Jump on the Ferry
There's more at Circular Quay
and The Royal Botanic Gardens

Best Blooms - Typically late October to late November

A GUIDE TO EXPLORING JACARANDA SEASON FROM MARY MACKILLOP PLACE...

More this way too
we recommend you
wander Waverton

Visit our Jacaranda
next to the Chapel
on Mount Street

Ball's Head
Reserve

Sawmillers Reserve

Fun Fact: The oldest jacaranda
in Australia is believed to be in
the Royal Botanic Garden,
Sydney, planted around 1850.

Blues Point Reserve
(Beautiful spot to view
Sydney Harbour)

Best Blooms - Typically late October to late November

More up this way too at Montpelier St,
Neutral Bay

Lavender Bay
& Wendy
Whitely
Gardens
(10 min walk)

Famous McDougall
Street, Kirribilli
(15-20 min walk)

Jump on the Ferry
There's more at Circular Quay
and The Royal Botanic Gardens